

27th Summer Meeting of Graduate Students in Modern and Contemporary History
University of Crete, Department of History and Archaeology
5 -7 July 2024

CALL FOR PAPERS

The Graduate Program in Modern History Studies of the Department of History & Archeology, University of Crete announces the organization of the 27th summer meeting of Modern and Contemporary History postgraduate students in Rethymnon between the 5th and the 7th of July 2024, with the aim of once again giving the opportunity to young researchers from various academic institutions and different historiographical traditions to meet, discuss and exchange scientific concerns and experiences. Therefore, participants' physical presence is highly required.

The call for papers is addressed to postgraduate students who have completed or are in the process of completing their Master Thesis, as well as PhD candidates from Greece and abroad, who are invited to participate with papers of 15-25 minutes, the subject of which should be related to their research projects. Each paper is followed by a discussion. Foreign language speakers may present their papers in English or French.

Those who wish to take part are kindly requested to send a CV and an abstract of their paper (up to one page) by no later than May 31st at the addresses: zei@uoc.gr , kokkinakis@uoc.gr or matalas@uoc.gr .

Contact numbers: 0030 6980609504 or 0030 6937218588.

Lodging arrangements for the participants will be made by the Department at the university campus (Campus of Gallou, Rethymnon)

Information about previous summer meetings may be found on the website of the Graduate Program in Modern Greek and European History of the Department of History & Archaeology:

<http://www.history-archaeology.uoc.gr/drastiriotites-kai-ereyna/therini-synantisi-neoteris-kai-sygchronis-istorias/>