

28th Summer Meeting of Graduate and Doctoral Students in Modern and Contemporary History University of Crete, Department of History of Archaeology

July 11-13, 2025

The Department of History & Archaeology of the University of Crete is organizing this year, as every summer, at the Rethymno University Campus, the 28th Summer Meeting of Graduate and Doctoral students in Modern and Contemporary History. These annual meetings aim to foster communication and exchange of research experience, as well as an open scientific dialogue among young researchers from different universities and historiographic traditions.

The invitation is addressed to students who have completed or are in the process of completing their Master thesis, as well as to Doctoral students from Greece and abroad, who would like to participate with 20-minute presentations, the topic of which is related to their research project. Each presentation will be followed by a discussion. For foreign speakers, it is possible for the presentation to be made in another language (preferably English or French).

Those who wish to participate are asked to send their CV and a summary of the topic of their presentation (no more than 350 words) electronically by May 31st to the following addresses:

zei@uoc.gr, kokkinakis@uoc.gr, matalas@uoc.gr.

Contact numbers: 0030 6937218588, 69880077049, 0030 6980609504.

Information about past summer meetings on the website of the Program of Graduate Studies in Modern and Contemporary History of the Department of History & Archaeology:

<https://www.history-archaeology.uoc.gr/en/activities-and-research/summer-meeting-of-modern-and-contemporary-history/>